

World Breastfeeding Week

August 1-7, 2013

The staff at the State Office would like to acknowledge and thank all of the local program staff for everything you do to promote and support breastfeeding. Your efforts have given many new Montanans the best and healthiest start in life.

Montana has achieved and maintained high rates of initiation and duration of breastfeeding over the years. This would not have been possible without all of your hard work.

Great Job!